ALL TOGETHER. NOW AND ALWAYS.

Welcome to the Hartford Business Journal’s Giving Guide for 2016. All of us at HBJ who have worked on the Giving Guide do so in the singular hope that you, as a reader and member of our community, find it truly useful.

Community is at the heart of the Giving Guide, and the publication is very near the hearts of many of us at the Hartford Business Journal. It is intended, as the name states, as a guide. It’s a guide to the many nonprofit and charitable organizations that work so tirelessly throughout the year to provide for, and to serve, our community with compassion, and with pragmatism. The essence of community is the notion that we are all on the same journey, and that what is good for any of us is good for all of us.

We are all aware, and have been for some time, that community matters more deeply to more of us than ever before. Companies realize they must give back to the communities that support them, and they want to, because engagement in the community, and a sense of higher mission and purpose, is a strong motivator for our teams. While this is all good news, many community challenges still exist, and the job is never finished.

However we choose to deploy our dollars and our time, giving is good business. We hope that as you consider your giving program, and the causes that you and your staffs might want to support, that this year’s Giving Guide will inform your decisions, and give you needed insight into the mission and operations of some of the preeminent nonprofit and community organizations in our region.

On behalf of all of us at the Hartford Business Journal, and our sponsors and partners who have helped create this year’s Giving Guide, as well as the many fine organizations featured in these pages, thank you, and happy holidays.

CHARTING THE PATH FORWARD

For more than 90 years, the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving has proudly served the Greater Hartford region. As a broad-based community foundation, we are presented with the many needs and ambitions of the community we serve, especially in these difficult economic times.

Currently, our region faces significant gaps in income, education and opportunity. Our new three-year strategic plan recognizes the challenges facing Greater Hartford and commits us to working in partnership with others to address these needs and sustain a vibrant region for all.

This fall, we launched a new grassroots marketing campaign, "My Hope. My Voice. My Vote.," to encourage civic engagement among residents to exercise their right and responsibility to vote. We were joined in this endeavor by the Connecticut Council for Philanthropy, MetroHartford Alliance and other funders throughout the state.

Additionally, in July, we engaged more than 600 residents, nonprofits, and community leaders at a community convening with Doctor Robert Putnam, author of Our Kids: The American Dream in Crisis. This event ignited a statewide conversation about closing the opportunity gap and encouraged us to think of all children as "our kids."

At the Hartford Foundation, we envision a future where all residents have equitable opportunity to thrive and contribute to our region. Effective philanthropy depends upon people from all walks of life who willingly, and in collaboration with others, give of their time, talent and resources for the greater good.

SUPPORTING HEALTHY COMMUNITIES

Harvard Pilgrim Health Care — serving members in Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, and New Hampshire — is committed to improving the health of the communities we serve.

We are proud to extend the work of the Harvard Pilgrim Health Care Foundation — and the collective community engagement of our 1360 employees — to benefit Hartford and other areas of the state.

Harvard Pilgrim is engaging our members, employer customers, providers and our communities to help individuals and families eat healthier. The Foundation has been active in funding initiatives to bring fresh, healthy and local produce to inner city residents through a mobile farmers' market, community gardens, and wellness programs. The Foundation also enlists the support of Harvard Pilgrim volunteers to serve our local communities by working with local partners on service days in the Hartford area. And, our mini-grant program enables each of our employees to direct $500 annually to a local charity of their choice, in memory of Harvard Pilgrim members who lost their lives on September 11, 2001.

As a company, we have also made inclusion a strategic business initiative, one in which we value differences.

As our presence continues to grow in Connecticut, we've enjoyed working with several Hartford-area agencies and we look forward to building on these relationships to help improve the health of the entire Hartford community.

UNIQUELY-SUITED TO IMPROVE OUR COMMUNITY

This year, our United Way is proud to celebrate 25 years of partnering with local workplaces to mobilize the volunteer power of their employees through United Way Year of Caring. What started as Day of Caring with employees from a dozen companies and 430 volunteers has now grown to nearly 50 companies and more than 4,000 individuals and counting.

United Way Year of Caring volunteers are currently focused on helping children succeed in school, ensuring families become more financially secure, and providing access to immediate emergency assistance for those in need. Projects include reading with children, preparing and serving meals at local shelters, and assisting with community cleanup projects at schools and parks. We are grateful for the support of our workplace partners and their employees.

Still, there is much work to be done. In each of the 40 towns our United Way serves, hard-working families struggle to make ends meet. Some parents are doubtful they'll be able to afford a healthy meal for their children each night or be able to pay the next utility bill. Many children, who are never immune to the financial hardships of their households, are unable to reap the benefits of quality early-childhood education opportunities due to their high costs. Too many families are forced to make difficult decisions, sacrificing one need to afford another.

These households are ALICE, a United Way acronym for Asset Limited, Income Constrained, Employed. According to a 2016 report from Connecticut United Ways, ALICE and Poverty households comprise 38% of all households in the state.

Our United Way focuses on bringing together businesses and nonprofits to improve lives for ALICE households because, together, we form a partnership uniquely-suited to help children, youth and families succeed.

We thank Hartford Business Journal and our fellow Giving Guide sponsors (Hartford Foundation for Public Giving and Harvard Pilgrim Health Care) for demonstrating the importance of for-profit and non-profit partnerships to make a difference in our community.

We encourage you to give, advocate and volunteer throughout the year to help raise awareness and improve lives.

Disregarded Entity LLCs Join the Nonprofit Mainstream

Limited liability companies (LLCs) are generally thought of as a form of for-profit business entity, taking off on the legal scene in the 1990s when all 50 states passed authorizing legislation. They have since become the for-profit “entity of choice” because they combine two desirable operating features: limited liability (a feature of corporate law where the owners are not responsible for the LLC’s liabilities) and pass-through taxation (a feature of partnership tax law where the LLC’s income is reported only on the tax return of its owners). LLCs have now acquired a permanent place in the nonprofit sector and the IRS has helped “pave the way” by explicitly sanctioning nonprofits’ use of LLCs in a variety of settings. We will discuss one of these situations: the single member LLC, wholly owned by a nonprofit and “disregarded” as a separate entity for federal tax purposes.

Many nonprofits are complex enterprises, balancing real estate, employee benefit plans, debt, operational risks and the like. To prudently navigate this labyrinth, we commonly recommend creating an organizational structure in which discrete activities or assets are conducted or held by separate subsidiaries under the control of a nonprofit “parent.” Traditionally we recommended creating subsidiary stock corporations (to house unrelated business activities) and subsidiary nonstock corporations with separate IRS tax exemption rulings (to house exempt function activities). However, over the past decade disregarded entity LLCs have emerged as an attractive alternative.

In 2002, the IRS began paving the way for nonprofits’ use of disregarded entity LLCs when it confirmed that: (1) the Section 501(c)(3) qualifying activities of a disregarded entity should be reported on the nonprofit parent’s Form 990 annual informational return and (2) the disregarded entity did not need to obtain a separate IRS determination letter. In 2012 the IRS confirmed that donors could make tax deductible contributions directly to disregarded entities of qualifying nonprofit organizations. Earlier this year, the IRS confirmed that employees of a disregarded entity are permitted to participate in the nonprofit parent’s Section 403(b) and Section 457 employee benefit plans.

However, despite the IRS’ guidance, we have found that disregarded entity LLCs continue to present a metaphysical paradox, perhaps best illustrated with a quick hypothetical.

Assume that a nonprofit provides services to people with intellectual disabilities and has created a wholly owned LLC to operate a gift shop providing jobs for its disabled clients. If a liability arises at the gift shop (for example, a slip and fall accident), the LLC’s separate existence under state law should help insulate the nonprofit from monetary liability associated with the claim. From a federal tax perspective, however, the LLC is disregarded, which means that all of the gift shop’s income and expenses will be reported on the nonprofit parent’s Form 990. If the income-generating activity is substantially related to the nonprofit’s exempt purpose (which it should be in this example), the income reported on the Form 990 will be exempt function income. If the LLC’s activities constitute an unrelated trade or business, the income and expense would be reported on the nonprofit’s Form 990-T.

What if, in the above example, the LLC was so successful that its unrelated business income dwarfed that of the nonprofit’s exempt function income? The IRS has consistently stated that the activities of disregarded entities are deemed (or attributed) to be the activities of their owners. The IRS has not, however, clearly delineated the point at which the LLC’s unrelated business income represents a “substantial” non-exempt purpose of the nonprofit parent which could jeopardize the nonprofit’s tax exemption. Thus, we regularly advise nonprofit clients to monitor the activities of their disregarded entities as they would monitor their own activities to ensure unrelated business income does not become such a substantial portion of their overall revenue. An advantage of conducting unrelated business income generating activities through an LLC (as opposed to the nonprofit directly conducting those activities), is that it will be easier to subsequently convert the tax status of the LLC (i.e., establish the LLC as a separately-taxable entity) in order to proactively address the concern of the IRS attributing the LLC’s unrelated business activities as those of the nonprofit and revoking the nonprofit’s tax exemption.

Let’s quickly consider how state property tax laws would treat the LLC using the gift shop example again. The applicable Connecticut property tax exemption statute [Conn. Gen. Stat. Section 12-81(7)] has been subject to inconsistent interpretation by property assessors (through no fault of the assessors). This subsection of the statute exempts from tax real and personal property owned or “held in trust for” Section 501(c)(3) organizations (provided the property is exclusively used for the applicable 501(c)(3) purposes). Almost no authority or guidance has yet to emerge as to whether “held in trust for” covers property held by an LLC wholly owned by a nonprofit organization and disregarded for federal income tax purposes. The ultimate answer to address this lacuna would be a statutory amendment, one that we would argue is a “revenue neutral,” but could be controversial given recent calls to tax nonprofit property owners emanating from certain members of the State legislature.

In summation, disregarded entity LLCs have joined the nonprofit mainstream but should be used with caution.

Reid and Riege has been committed to our clients’ success and guided by their priorities since 1950. ## American Red Cross

OUR MISSION: The American Red Cross prevents and alleviates human suffering in the face of emergencies by mobilizing the power of volunteers and the generosity of our donors.

The American Red Cross is where people mobilize to help their neighbors — across the street, across the country, and across the world — in emergencies. Each year, across the nation in communities large and small, victims of nearly 66,000 disasters turn to neighbors — the more than half a million volunteers and more than 31,000 employees of the Red Cross for help. An average of more than 7 million people a year receive Red Cross training in first aid, water safety and other skills that help save lives. In Connecticut, we helped victims of more than 600 disasters with a team of nearly 3,000 volunteer staff. We reached nearly 70,000 people with training in First Aid, CPR, Lifeguard training, Babysitter training, Community Disaster Education programs and more. We are also actively installing free smoke alarms across the state as part of the Red Cross Home Fire Preparedness Campaign. The program was developed to reduce the number of deaths and injuries due to home fires — and last year we installed nearly 6,000 smoke alarms, helping to make Connecticut homes safer. In addition, we helped more than 600 Connecticut military families with emergency communications, counseling services and emergency financial assistance. And our volunteers supported thousands of blood drives where more than 112,000 units of life-saving blood were collected.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS/OPPORTUNITIES

The American Red Cross has special events throughout the year. You can support our statewide events by sponsoring or attending our Red, White & YOU Ball or our Connecticut Heroes Breakfast. Donations of live and silent auction items for our Red White & YOU Ball are also welcome. For more information about events, contact Libby Richardson at (860) 678-4310 or libby.richardson@redcross.org.

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Financial donations are the best way to support the work of the American Red Cross. We turn your dollars into compassionate response at an average of more than 600 local disasters in Connecticut each year, providing emotional support, shelter and help with emergency food, clothing and household needs for families displaced by emergencies and disasters. Your donations also support community disaster preparedness education and support of military families. Donations may also be made in

OUR MISSION: Capital Community College Foundation (CCCF) supports Capital Community College "in all its endeavors." CCCF serves as the College's fundraising arm and establishes annual and long-term goals for advancement of the College as an accessible and affordable public institution of higher learning serving Greater Hartford.

(Left) One of the nursing labs at CCC. The nationally accredited Associate degree in Nursing program is the largest RN program in Connecticut. (Right) Associate and certificate programs in architectural engineering technology and construction management prepare students for careers in construction and infrastructure fields.

The Foundation serves as a Regional Advisory Council, bringing business, civic and neighborhood perspectives to the development of programs and responding to educational needs in the community. It promotes the College as an integral part of Hartford's cultural and business district.

GOALS

- Raise funds for scholarships, facilities and equipment, books and educational materials, faculty and curriculum development.
- Serve as a prudent and effective steward of annual, endowment and capital gifts donated to the College.
- Increase awareness of the College and promote broad public participation in its educational, cultural and community activities.
- Advise and support the President in the development of credit and credit-free programs that are consistent with the goals of higher education in Connecticut

FUNDRAISING EVENTS/OPPORTUNITIES

The Changing Lives Gala — CCC's signature event for access to higher education in Hartford — will be held April 20, 2017 on the campus at historic Centinel Hill Hall auditorium. The Gala raises funds for scholarships and programs that help students succeed. Sponsorships ($2,500 to $20,000), ticket purchases ($100 pp), journal advertising and donating to live and silent auctions are ways to support the Gala.

Campus Naming Gift Opportunities

The naming of a part of Capital Community College's campus (formerly G. Fox & Company Department Store) is a donor option for major and planned gifts in support of endowment and programs. Naming gifts provide individuals and businesses with a permanent and visible way to support the College and educational access. Giving levels start at $1,000 through the Windows to The Future program.

Scholarships — Scholarships create access for deserving students. Capital utilizes more federal and state financial aid on a per student basis than any other CT community college but cost roadblocks remain for many students who are the first in their families to pursue a degree. A year of full time study costs $4,173 in tuition and fees.

Hartford Heritage Program — The Hartford Heritage Program (www.capitalcc.edu/HHP/) links college courses with the city's cultural and historic institutions and places. By teaching themes that explore Hartford, the city becomes an extended classroom, and Capital's diverse, urban student population gains an understanding of and appreciation for their community. Gifts for the Heritage program are matched on a one for two basis by a National Endowment for the Humanities challenge grant

Annual and Program Support — With more than 60 accredited degrees and certificates, Capital seeks financial support to improve academic quality and campus life. Contributions enhance and maintain labs, make book and e-learning acquisitions possible and enrich teaching and learning through art, music and cultural programs.

The Connecticut Mission of Mercy Free Dental Clinic (CTMOM), a project of the Connecticut Foundation for Dental Outreach (CFDO) is held in a different location annually. Over the course of a weekend, the 156 chair clinic provides free dental care to more than 2,000 people of all ages. Patients are seen by dental and medical volunteers. General volunteers come together to assist in non-dental/medical areas. Over the last 9 years, the CFDO and CTMOM has served 17,437 patients, and provided more than $11,000,000 in free care.

GOALS

- Provide free dental care to more than 2,000 people at CTMOM 2017
- Assist patients with finding dental homes
- Educate the public and policymakers about the importance of good oral health, and the need for an adequately funded dental safety net
- Reach out and provide care to the Veteran and Senior populations
- Raise funds for supplies, equipment, volunteer support, and patient support for the clinic
- Seek endowment funds to sustain the organization and its programs

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Individuals, Foundations, Corporations can financially support CTMOM in the following ways:

Sponsorship — Levels of Sponsorship range from Diamond to Friends. Please contact Dr. Michael Perl, Secretary/Treasurer michaelperl@hotmail.com or Josephine Bicknell, Director of Programs jbicknell@cfdo.org for information regarding the benefits of sponsorship. Funds are needed to operate the clinic. Our ultimate goal is to raise enough funds/endowments to self-sustain the organization, its clinics, and other outreach activities of the foundation.

In-kind donations are needed for the clinic. Donations of dental and office supplies, and printing are needed to offset the expenses of the clinic. As it is an enormous undertaking to feed patients and volunteers during the clinic, donations of food/beverages for clinic days are very much needed, and greatly appreciated.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

The Connecticut Mission of Mercy Free Dental Clinic is "staffed" by more than 1,200 dental/medical and general volunteers. Volunteers are needed in all areas of the clinic. General volunteer positions available are as follows: Crowd Control, Data Entry, Food Service, Parking, Patient Escorts, Patient Registration, Set-up clinic, Tear down clinic, Translator/Interpreters, Volunteer Registration, and Waste Management. There are also opportunities to volunteer pre-clinic.

Volunteers have stated that it is a pleasure meeting and learning about patients and other volunteers, and that it is one of the most fulfilling things that they do. A quote from one of our volunteers: "I hesitate to call it volunteering because I was paid with hundreds of smiles, piles of appreciation and I learned so much!"

So many people are forced to choose between paying the heating bill or getting dental care. The CT Mission of Mercy Free Dental Clinic does a wonderful job bringing dental professionals together to provide care to those who can't afford it.

With support from the Arts Council, the Veteran's Art Foundation held a series of mask-making workshops in 2016 to help local veterans cope with the traumas of war.

The Greater Hartford Arts Council helps to improve lives and transform communities through the arts, right here in the Capital Region. Our goal is to connect all citizens to the arts in our communities and provide support to the arts and cultural organizations that make Greater Hartford such a vibrant place to live, work and visit. We do this through our United Arts Campaign, an annual, community-wide fundraising effort to raise awareness and support for the arts. Thanks to the generous contributions of area corporations and individuals like you, the Arts Council is able to provide critical operating support to nearly 150 local non-profit arts organizations, allowing them to serve our community with cultural programming, educational opportunities and so much more. ## GOALS

The Hartford Foundation for Public Giving is a catalyst for the Greater Hartford community. We unite often divergent groups for a greater goal: to enable all within the 29-town region we serve to thrive. We think big, take appropriate risks and invest for the long term, aiming for systemic solutions that ensure that everyone is given the opportunity to succeed. Our priority areas are:

- Vibrant communities: All of our region's residents should have the opportunity to live in and to contribute to strong, safe and vibrant communities.
- Learning — from birth through college: All of our children should be ready to learn when they enter kindergarten and prepared to succeed when they graduate from high school.
- Family Economic Security: All residents should have access to clear pathways to employment and career advancement that lead to economic security for their families.

OUR MISSION: Hartford's Camp Courant is the largest and oldest free summer day camp in the nation. Since 1894, Hartford's Camp Courant has provided a free summer experience for Hartford children, ages 5-12, that promotes positive youth development and healthy lifestyle choices through active learning and fun activities. More than 1,000 children attend Camp Courant each summer.

The warm summer days at Hartford's Camp Courant are filled with moments of excitement, fun, friendship, and self-confidence. As the oldest and largest FREE summer day camp in the nation, Hartford's Camp Courant provides a safe, exciting and educational environment in which Hartford's youth, ages five (5) through 12, participate in active learning opportunities and fun activities focused on positive youth development and healthy lifestyle choices. Campers become part of a historic camp community that continues to grow and evolve, but has also stood the test of time for 122 years.

Camp's mission is grounded in the central premise that fun yet educational experiences will have a positive and lifelong impact on our young campers, many of whom lack structured programming during the summer months. As a youth development organization, we combine traditional camp activities with enrichment programming that exposes our campers to ideas and opportunities which spark their imaginations and inspires them to be their best in a safe, nurturing, fresh-air setting.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS/OPPORTUNITIES

Our annual year-end Buddy Bash celebration is held at our campsite in Farmington in September every year. The event is put together by a large committee of board, staff and community stakeholders.

The event also honors one organization and one individual who are dedicated to supporting an exciting, educational and robust youth-development experience for thousands of Hartford's kids, summer after summer. The 2016 award winners were Dan Moore-Eversource and Lego Community Fund, U.S.

More than 15 restaurants supported the 2016 Buddy Bash, and Camp Courant was able to secure $192,000 in corporate and foundation sponsorship. More than 450 people attended the event, which included lavish hors d'oeuvres, delicious brews, great entertainment and exciting silent auction items, all in support of Hartford's kids.

Want to support the 2017 Buddy Bash? Become a sponsor, buy a ticket to the event, donate in-kind services (printing, tables, chairs, linens, etc), donate an auction item, or donate food or drinks for the event.

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Hartford's Camp Courant is the oldest and largest FREE summer program in the country, and thanks in part to the support of the greater Hartford community, we have been able to provide a fun and educational experience to Hartford's young people for 122 years. We are always looking for both in-kind and financial support to ensure that we remain viable and sustainable for the next 122 years and beyond.

Opportunities include:

Sponsor A Camper:

- One day: $40.00
- One Week: $200.00
- One Month: $800.00
- Entire summer (six weeks): $1,200

Annual Buddy Bash Gala Sponsorship: Sponsorships range from $250.00-$25,000.00

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Volunteers are the lifeblood of Hartford's Camp Courant, and the ability of people to work together for the betterment of Hartford's young people is an invaluable resource to Camp. There are a number of ways to volunteer with Camp throughout the year, including:

- Camp Programming (June 2017-August 2017)
Come experience Camp first hand by volunteering alongside our staff and our campers. We are always looking for volunteers to assist in the classroom, help with recreational programming and activities, and serve as chaperones on Camp-sponsored field trips.
- Camp Beautification Projects (April thru October, 2017)
Our campus in Farmington is beautiful, but we could not keep it looking great without the help of volunteers. During the warmer months, we rely on the dedication of volunteers to help with beautification and clean up at Camp. Activities may include painting, landscaping, clean up and general labor.
- Special Events
Special events are the perfect opportunity for an individual or group to get involved and be connected with Camp.

www.hphc.org/foundation

OUR MISSION: Created in 1980, the Harvard Pilgrim Health Care Foundation supports Harvard Pilgrim’s mission to improve the quality and value of health care for the people and communities we serve throughout Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Since its inception, the Foundation has provided more than $135 million in grants.

The Harvard Pilgrim Foundation continues to invest in the Hartford Food System to support the operations of a mobile farmer’s market in Hartford. This program is jointly run with the Hispanic Health Council and brings fresh fruits and vegetables year-round to individuals in need.

In 2016, the Foundation expanded its efforts to help families and communities eat healthier by funding organizations focused on increasing food production and distribution that help get fresh, healthy food to low- and moderate-income families. Connecticut organizations that the Foundation provided nearly $185,000 in grants to included: Brass City Harvest in Waterbury, Connecticut Food Bank in Wallingford, Green Village Initiative in Bridgeport, and New Haven Farms/ New Haven Land Trust.

Another stand-out initiative is the Foundation’s mini-grant program. Established to commemorate those Harvard Pilgrim members who lost their lives on September 11, 2001, Harvard Pilgrim and the Foundation created a grants program that allows each employee to award a $500 grant, completely funded by the Foundation, to the local charity of his or her choice each year. In 2015, $616,000 was distributed through mini-grants to hundreds of nonprofit organizations throughout the region.

GOALS

- Improve health of communities where Harvard Pilgrim Health Care does business.
- Continue to increase access to fresh foods for low- and middle-income families.
- Expand opportunities for Harvard Pilgrim Health Care staff to give and serve in local communities.
- Promote Health Equity and Inclusion.
- Create heightened visibility for healthy eating, active living, and promote Harvard Pilgrim Health Care and the Foundation as a leader in community-based health prevention in the region.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Harvard Pilgrim employees improve the communities in which they live and work through Harvard Pilgrim’s Employee Service and Giving initiative. This program enables employees to volunteer through company-sponsored days of service. In May of this year, Harvard Pilgrim Health Care employees joined members of Hands on Hartford for the 3rd annual Employee Service Day at three different locations across Hartford. beds at Breakthrough II Magnet School, planting container gardens with senior residents of The Retreat, and participating in landscape and painting projects at My Sisters’ Place.

Over the years, Harvard Pilgrim employees — along with partners and members of the business community — have contributed to hundreds of volunteer efforts including improving local schools and camps; donating clothing and school supplies; supporting disaster relief efforts; and serving at community organizations such as soup kitchens and shelters. In 2015, 97% of Harvard Pilgrim employees participated in at least one form of service or giving.

The Healthy Food Fund grant supports a Farm-to-Pantry program that helps farmers harvest excess crops for a network of Food Bank programs including food pantries, soup kitchens, and residential and day programs for both children and the elderly. OUR MISSION: The Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford protects and enhances the well-being of Jews worldwide through the values of tikkun olam (repairing the world), tzedakah (charity and social justice) and Torah (Jewish learning).

The Jewish community has been a vibrant part of Greater Hartford since the early 1800s. From families who have lived here for generations to recent arrivals from Russia and Israel, Jewish Greater Hartford has it all — and the Federation is at its center.

Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford is the only organization in this region that touches every aspect of Jewish life. We serve nearly 27,000 Jewish households in 37 towns across Greater Hartford. While Federation is best known for its annual fundraising campaign — which supports 26 partner agencies and programs — we also provide humanitarian and educational support in Israel and across the globe through The Jewish Agency for Israel, American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, and World ORT. Here in Greater Hartford, Federation provides more than 20 direct programs and services, including programming on Israeli culture and technology, interfaith relations, and LGBTQ issues. Federation supports literacy programs for at-risk elementary school children, helps parents send their children to Jewish camps, and helps young adults make their first trip to Israel. Federation also trains the next generation of leaders and teachers to ensure a vibrant Jewish community for generations to come.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS/OPPORTUNITIES

Federation holds nearly 150 events each year, both fundraising and non-solicitation. Most are open to the public.

Visions: Our largest annual men's fundraising event draws 300 men who contribute at least $365 annually. Our guest speaker this year is Emmy Award winning comedy writer Alan Zweibel.

Voices: Our largest annual women's fundraising event draws 400 women who contribute at least $365 annually. Our guest speaker this year is fashion maven Melissa Rivers.

CT-Israel Innovations Showcase: A joint production of Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford, MetroHartford Alliance and Connecticut Economic Resource Center, the Showcase features Israeli businesses that have chosen Connecticut as their U.S. base of operations. Nearly 200 business leaders and Jewish community members attended in 2016.

Several corporate sponsorship levels are available for these events and others throughout the year.

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Federation's Annual Campaign kicks off each fall to raise resources for our partner agencies and programs, our community initiatives, and the Jewish community in Israel and 60 other countries. We offer socializing and networking opportunities through Men's and Women's Philanthropy, our Young Adult Division, the Jewish Professionals Network and other groups. Federation provides opportunities for advocacy and social action through the Jewish Community Relations Council and offers education and leadership development through the Commission on Jewish Education and Leadership. Many of our programs involve corporate sponsorship opportunities.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Everyone is welcome at Federation. Whether you'd like to read to at-risk children, grow a garden for the hungry, develop your Jewish leadership skills or just make a few phone calls on Super Sunday, we can connect you.

OUR MISSION: The mission of the Jordan Porco Foundation is to prevent suicide, promote mental health, and create a message of hope for young adults.

The Jordan Porco Foundation provides mental health awareness and suicide prevention programming for teenagers and young adults. We form partnerships with high schools, two and four year colleges and universities, community organizations, foundations, and leading prevention providers to deliver programs that increase awareness of the mental health resources and services available to students. Our goal is to challenge the stigma and misconceptions around mental health and suicide that often deter individuals from seeking help, empower peers to be gatekeepers by understanding the warning signs of suicide or a mental health concern, and increase willingness to ask for help if experiencing emotional distress. Since our inception, tens of thousands of students have engaged in our programming, resulting in thousands of depression screenings that have helped identify at risk individuals and led to treatment.

GOALS

- Engage more students in peer to peer support efforts creating communities of inclusiveness.
- Further reduce the stigma associated with mental health and suicide and increase help seeking behaviors.
- Form additional partnerships with leading prevention organizations to compound the impact of our work.
- More than double the number of events and students participating in our programs and services.
- Increase advocacy efforts to enact legislation supporting suicide prevention training.

- Continue our national expansion to ensure greater visibility of our messaging creating opportunity to save more lives.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS/OPPORTUNITIES

The Jordan Porco Foundation holds several fundraising events annually that offer plenty of opportunities to be involved in supporting the work of the organization. Whether it's a Together at the Table dinner event or our annual Jordan's Journey Gala celebration, we welcome your participation. Our events offer nationally renowned mental health subject matter experts with personal experiences that engage audiences in a profound way. The positive feedback we consistently receive from those involved in our events inspires us to work even harder to reach more students and save more lives. For more information about any of our events, please visit us at www.jordanporcofoundation.org/fundraisingevents.

GIVING & VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

We couldn't do our lifesaving work without your help and support. Financial contributions are the best way to support the work of the Jordan Porco Foundation. We are always looking for help making our mission possible: you can volunteer, make a donation, sponsor or attend a fundraising event, shop for a cause, and more. We're pleased to support Junior Achievement and serve as financial literacy volunteers in the classroom year after year.

Junior Achievement of Southwest New England, Inc.

70 Farmington Ave., Hartford, CT 06105 | 860-525-4510
www.jaconn.org

OUR MISSION: Junior Achievement empowers young people to own their economic success.

Junior Achievement provides programs during the school day and after school for students in kindergarten through high school that focus on financial responsibility, workforce readiness and entrepreneurship. JA's programs are delivered by volunteers from business and the community who work side by side with classroom teachers to prepare and inspire students for future success.

GOALS

- Expand the number of students served to 50,000 by 2020.
- Increase financial resources and number of classroom volunteers.
- Expand programs that provide even more impact for young people, including JA Company Program where students create an actual company.
- Increase awareness of JA's mission and success in preparing young people for the future.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS/OPPORTUNITIES

Junior Achievement holds many special events during the course of the year. There are sponsorship and volunteer opportunities for all. Please contact Robin Johnson, director of development, at rjohnson@jaconn.org for more information. Here is a summary of our events:

- JA Classic Golf Tournament. This event, held at Tumble Brook Country Club in Bloomfield on June 5, 2017, has been attracting top business leaders for 18 years. Thanks to the event's high-end gift package, great customer service and opportunities for customer entertainment, it has earned a reputation as one of the best charity golf tournaments in New England.
- Business Hall of Fame. This dinner honors men and women whose careers in business and dedication to improving the local community make them an inspiration and role model for young people. There are separate Business Halls of Fame in both Hartford, April 16, 2017, and New Haven, March 9, 2017.
- Bowl-a-Thons. This is an opportunity for teams of employees, relatives and friends to enjoy an afternoon or evening of bowling and, by soliciting funds and pledges, raise money to help Junior Achievement. JA hosts several events throughout the year in the Hartford and New Haven areas in the Spring, including a "Networking" event.
- Partners in Achievement breakfasts. These breakfasts, one in New Haven, Nov. 16, 2016, and one in Hartford, May 12, 2017, provide an opportunity to learn about the impact JA is having in the local community. Speakers include students, educators, volunteers and donors. The breakfast is free, and those who attend are asked to consider donating to the organization.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Junior Achievement relies on volunteers from business and the community to provide its programs to students. Working side by side with classroom teachers, JA volunteers lead students through a series of fun and engaging activities primarily during the school day. JA has designed its programs with an understanding that most individuals face time constraints. Thus, elementary school programs last only five class periods, middle school programs last only six class periods and most high school programs only last seven class periods. All volunteers receive training and detailed guidebooks that provide class scripts, lesson plans and activities designed to make the classroom experience gratifying and successful. Volunteers say they get a deep sense of satisfaction from making a difference in students' lives. Volunteers can participate as a group from a company as a teambuilding exercise or as individuals.

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Individuals and businesses can financially support JA programs in the following ways:

- Sponsor a "JA in A Day" program, in which all students at a local elementary school receive JA programming. Cost: $10,000 to $25,000, depending on the school size.
- Sponsor an entire grade level of JA programs (roughly five programs/classrooms). Cost: $5,000.
- Sponsor one JA classroom program. Cost: $1,000.
- Sponsor one JA student. Cost: $50.

OUR MISSION: Manchester Community College Foundation advances the academic, economic, and personal growth of diverse populations by securing funding to assist the college in achieving its mission and goals through support of programs, scholarships and equipment.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS/OPPORTUNITIES

The Evening of Fine Wines is a signature event that benefits MCC scholarships and programs. On April 28, 2017 the event will celebrate its 25th anniversary with Adam Jeamel and United Bank Foundation Connecticut, Inc. as the presenting sponsor. Proceeds from the event support student success by funding scholarships and academic programs. Individuals or businesses that wish to sponsor the event or give through in-kind gifts or donations can visit www.MCCgiving.org for more information.

More than 500 people attend this event annually, enjoying an array of scrumptious food prepared by MCC's own award-winning culinary students, as well as samples of fine wine, beers and other beverages from regional distributors, while also perusing and bidding on donated auction prizes and enjoying music and dancing. To add an extra level of entertainment, consider attending the Champagne

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

There are many opportunities at MCC for student, alumni and community members to volunteer their time where their experience and skills can provide a valuable contribution to student success. These include mentoring, tutoring and assisting with planning, preparation and execution of various events.

CAMPAIGN 2020 INITIATIVES:

By 2020, Manchester Community College plans to raise $20 million through Campaign 2020 — the college's first-ever comprehensive capital campaign that will fulfill the essential needs at MCC. Support for Campaign 2020 will impact three key areas:

People

People are an integral component to academic success. MCC responds to the needs of the student community.

Partnerships

A gift to MCC has impact beyond the college campus. For example, MCC:

- Has partnerships with the town of Manchester and local businesses
- Fosters innovation and small business development through the Viscogliosi Entrepreneurship Center
- Provides artistic visual, musical and written word events at MCC on Main, downtown Manchester
- Provides public forums to the community
- Leverages connections with local employers in key markets to maximize opportunities for students

Programs:

As industries and workplaces advance to respond to changing technologies, so must the college be prepared to train students with the most relevant tools. Your contributions will support:

- Facility upgrades
- Installation of current, industry-specific equipment and software programs
- Support of relevant curricula designed to prepare students for Connecticut's job market

THE NEED

Reading is the foundation for all learning, yet...

57% of Connecticut's children are unable to read proficiently by fourth grade.

For our low-income children, this statistic rises to an alarming 80% of children who are unable to read proficiently by fourth grade.

1 book

In low-income areas, only 1 book is available for every 300 children.

OUR SOLUTION

1 EDUCATION

Pediatricians trained in our model of early literacy development provide parents with age-appropriate guidance about books and reading at regular pediatric visits.

2 BOOKS

From infancy through five years, the child is given a brand new book to take home.

3 ENGAGEMENT

Parents incorporate advice received from pediatric visits and make reading aloud part of their daily routines.

4 SCREENING

The book is given at the beginning of the visit and used as a developmental surveillance tool.

OUR OUTCOMES

Parents are 2.5x more likely to read to their children.

Parents are 2x more likely to read to their children more than three times a week.

Families are 2.5x more likely to enjoy reading together or have books in the home.

Children's language ability improves with increased exposure to Reach Out and Read.

Children's language development is improved by 3-6 months.

Since 1989, Reach Out and Read doctors have been prescribing books to children during well-child visits and teaching parents the value of reading aloud to their children.

Visit reachoutandread.org/connecticut to learn how you can help us prescribe opportunity to Connecticut's children, one book at a time.

where great stories begin™

OUR MISSION: Reach Out and Read gives young children a foundation for success by incorporating books into pediatric care and encouraging families to read aloud together.

Who We Are

Reach Out and Read is an evidence-based, national organization of medical providers who provide new books to children and literacy advice to parents at pediatric well-child visits. Focusing on low-income families, medical providers empower parents as their children's first teachers to prepare them to enter kindergarten at grade level, ready to read and succeed in school and in life.

How We Do It

Through 73 clinical locations in Connecticut, Reach Out and Read pediatricians provide parents with personalized, age-appropriate advice about reading at every well-child visit from newborn through 5 years, along with a new book for the child starting at the 6 month visit. We reach nearly 40,000 children and give out 80,000 new books each year.

Why We Do It

- 80% of Connecticut's low-income children are unable to read proficiently by the end of 3rd grade.
- 44% of Connecticut's low-income 3 and 4 year olds do not attend pre-school.
- 44 million adults are functionally illiterate and unable to read a simple story to their children.
- Low literacy costs US taxpayers and businesses more than $225 billion each year, through lost wages, unemployment, welfare, and other government assistance.

Why We Are Effective

- Endorsed by the American Academy of Pediatrics, our program is embedded within the existing medical system, providing us with unparalleled, repeated, one-on-one access to all children and families.
- Pediatricians volunteer their time to deliver our program, which keeps our overhead costs low.
- The book is "prescribed" as if it is a medication, so parents are far more likely to make reading aloud a part of their daily routines.

Our doctors make literacy development a standard part of pediatric primary care.

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

There are several ways to give a disadvantaged child the chance to read and succeed:

- Adopt-a-Program: Sponsor one of our 73 Connecticut Reach Out and Read programs located at medical clinics that predominantly serve low-income families. Annual program costs range from $5,000 — $60,000 depending on clinic size.
- Become a Book Buddy: Our Book Buddy program offers an easy way to share the gift of reading with children in need every month of the year. Set the amount once, and your donation will be charged automatically each month to help disadvantaged children throughout our state.
- Prescribe Literacy!: For every $100 donation, one child receives the full five years of Reach Out and Read including ten new books to take home and keep.

We, at the Pediatric Health Center of Danbury Hospital, have taken under our wings the Reach Out and Read Program. This program has given us the tools to encourage our families to read to their babies and children, not only to promote language development and school readiness, but also to improve and foster the bond between them. I believe since the implementation of this program, the notion of reading to babies, which was foreign to many of our families, has made a very positive change in their views, and we are very optimistic that this program will make a significant impact in the future of our young patients.

The Travelers Championship is the largest and most successful community event in Connecticut and it is important for Hospital for Special Care (HSC), as a community hospital, to be part of it. The fundraising platforms at the tournament deliver much-needed funding to HSC. When the Travelers Championship designated the ALS Clinic at HSC as the primary beneficiary in 2016, it shined a welcomed light on the disease and the patients and families it impacts, as well as the wonderful HSC clinical team. Without the Travelers Championship, this simply would not have happened.

GOALS

- Further engage the nonprofit community to help them raise funds and to provide a platform to increase awareness for their charities.
- Continue to recruit a strong field of PGA TOUR players for competition.
- Create new revenue streams through additional events or sponsorships in order to raise more funds for charity.
- Enhance the business-to-business networking environment during the tournament.
- Utilize the unique platform of a professional sporting event that is broadcast internationally to benefit the community and to generate a positive economic impact on the state.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS/OPPORTUNITIES

Held annually at TPC River Highlands, the Travelers Championship benefits the community and helps local charities grow. There are a variety of special events leading up to and throughout tournament week. Each year the Travelers Championship kicks off with a 5K race to raise funds to benefit a local charity. The outreach continues during tournament week with our Military Appreciation programs, Women's Day, Concert Series, Celebrity Pro-Am, Operation Shower and more. In addition, we encourage charities from the region to use the tournament as a fundraising tool. The Travelers Championship provides nonprofits the ability to host special events or utilize our fundraising programs to help raise additional funds.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Every year, approximately 4,000 people volunteer at the Travelers Championship. Our volunteers spend countless hours throughout the week to help deliver a world-class PGA TOUR experience for players, sponsors, fans and the media. # Imagine the possibilities

Think about what it would be like if there were opportunities for every child to succeed in school and every family to achieve financial security. Gifts to United Way Community Investment help make this possible for people in central and northeastern Connecticut every day.

UnitedWayInc.org

OUR MISSION: United Way's mission is to engage and bring together people and resources committed to the well-being of children and families in our community.

United Way of Central and Northeastern Connecticut

GOALS

By working together, we provide opportunities for individual and community success. Our shared priorities are to:

- Prepare children and youth for academic success with a focus on early-childhood education, grade-level reading and transition to high school.
- Connect people with good jobs and opportunities to learn how to save and grow their money.
- Provide individuals and families with immediate emergency assistance, such as food and shelter.

Why Does This Matter?

In our region, more than 1 in 4 households have earnings above the Federal Poverty Level but below a basic cost-of-living threshold. Despite working hard, these households struggle to make ends meet. United Way calls this demographic ALICE, an acronym for Asset Limited, Income Constrained, Employed.

United Way invests in programs and initiatives that serve ALICE households throughout our region. Through gifts to United Way Community Investment, we help connect ALICE families with tools to help them do more than make ends meet, including access to affordable childcare, job training in industries providing family-sustaining wages, and earned tax credits. During the 2016 tax season alone, United Way helped return more than $29 million in federal credits and refunds to more than 11,000 working households in our community.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS/OPPORTUNITIES

United Way's Campaign provides members of our community an annual opportunity to help raise critical resources that benefit local children and families. Additionally, our United Way provides opportunities to improve community conditions with events throughout the year. Our most popular event, United Way Women's Leadership Council's Power of the Purse Luncheon and Silent Auction, raises funds to help women and families become financially secure. United Way Emerging Leaders Society's Spin for Kids spin-a-thon and Boogie for Books dance-a-thon raise money to support programs and initiatives helping children and youth succeed in school. We encourage community members to join us in fun and unique ways to help make a difference.

For more information, visit UnitedWayInc.org/Events.

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

- Sponsor a United Way Campaign in your workplace.
- Make a gift online at UnitedWayInc.org/Donate.
- Increase your annual gift by $25, $250 or 25 percent in honor of the 25th anniversary of United Way's flagship volunteer mobilization initiative, United Way Year of Caring.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

In the past year, United Way mobilized more than 4,000 volunteers to improve the lives of children and families in our community. You can:

- Provide one-on-one budget coaching to help individuals reorganize finances and save for the future.

Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.

– Nelson Mandela

Education opens doors to almost limitless future possibilities. For many Greater Hartford students, however, those doors are closed. Despite their remarkable talents and abilities and their lofty ambitions, such students are held back by limited financial resources. With the support of the Greater Hartford community, WALKS provides these young people with scholarship dollars that allow them to receive a superb secondary education, preparing them to reach their full potential today and in the future. Now in its 60th year, WALKS has started nearly 400 young men and women on the path to making names for themselves in the fields of medicine, law, science, finance, information technology and politics among others. Your help in funding these scholarships has a direct and lasting impact on the students, their families and the Greater Hartford community as a whole.

An overview of WALKS programs:

- The Named Scholars Program uses leadership gifts of $5,000 or more to support one or more individual Scholars bearing the name of the sponsoring family, foundation or corporation.
- The Barnes Service Award is presented annually to one student from each school who demonstrates exemplary volunteer service above and beyond expectations both on and off campus.
- The WALKS Scholars Luncheon is held annually in October to introduce current scholarship recipients to donors and other interested individuals, highlighting how these scholarships have impacted their educational achievements and future goals.
- The WALKS Constitution Essay Contest is an interscholastic contest held each spring among the five schools to encourage the study of the U.S. Constitution through research papers. An interactive awards program is held annually in April, including a discussion of the research topic among the students and a volunteer contest judge.

Can you change a life by supporting the WALKS scholarship fund?

Visit our website www.walksfoundation.org for more information.

Named Scholars Program

The WALKS Foundation and the WALKS Scholars are particularly grateful to the following donors who have provided leadership gifts of $5,000 to $20,000 to support one or more individual scholarship recipients bearing the name of their sponsor. This generous investment in the education and future of the WALKS Scholars is opening up remarkable opportunities that lead to long-term success. Sponsors have the opportunity to build a personal relationship with the students they support and follow the students' achievements at the WALKS schools and beyond.

OUR MISSION: The WALKS Foundation provides scholarships to motivated, talented youths from Greater Hartford with leadership potential and a demonstrated financial need, enabling them to obtain the best possible secondary school education and college preparation. WALKS particularly strives to aid young people from the city of Hartford and students of color.

GOALS:

- To provide scholarship funding to as many students as possible at the five member schools who meet preset criteria. The underlying purpose is to help students maximize their academic and interpersonal abilities, preparing them for future success at the college level and in the professional world.
- To make financial aid resources available to the member schools which will enable them to accept as many graduates from the Hartford Youth Scholars program as possible, bridging the gap between HYS and higher education.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS/OPPORTUNITIES:

The annual WALKS Scholars Luncheon, held each October, provides a forum for current donors and interested persons to meet the fifteen present scholarship recipients and hear firsthand from five of them about how the WALKS Foundation and the community's support have affected their educational experiences and their future prospects. The public are warmly invited to attend. Highlights include presentation of five volunteer service awards, introductions of past Scholars in attendance, and remarks from five current Scholars along with the Board Chairperson.

Details can be found on our website no later than September 1 of each year, or you may email admin@walksfoundation.org to inquire.

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES:

WALKS provides fifteen scholarships each year at the member schools to students from Hartford and surrounding towns. These scholarships are funded entirely through the generous support of individuals, families, foundations and corporations with faith in the long-term effect of quality secondary education and a willingness to invest in the futures of our young people. Donations of any size are welcomed and greatly appreciated and can be made by mail or on WALKS' website. Gifts of securities can be arranged by contacting the WALKS Treasurer. Personal gifts can be maximized by checking with your employer to see if they have a matching gift program.

Foundation/corporate gifts of $7,500 or more and individual gifts of $5,000 or more are used to provide direct sponsorship of a single scholarship recipient who is recognized by the name of his or her sponsor. Smaller gifts are used cumulatively to underwrite tuition and other educational costs for additional scholarship recipients. If you or your company are interested in sponsoring a Named Scholar for the coming year, please contact WALKS for details.

WALKS seeks corporate donors each year to fund the Scholars Luncheon or to provide a challenge grant which matches all new and increased giving dollar-for-dollar for one fiscal year. If your company would be interested in supporting the WALKS Scholars through either of these means, please contact WALKS for details.

Born in Puerto Rico as one of ten children of a single mother, Kelvin Roldan grew up in Hartford's Stowe Village housing project, where his future prospects seemed narrow and limited. The assistant principal at Fox Middle School saw potential in Kelvin, invited him to meet with a representative from Avon Old Farms and encouraged him to apply. With the aid of a WALKS scholarship and his mother's faithful support, Kelvin graduated from Avon Old Farms in 1996 with far wider horizons, thanks in part to the mentors and role models he found among the faculty at AOF who proved to be "an incredible force" in his life. Since then, Kelvin has earned degrees from Middlebury College and Trinity College and is presently working on his doctorate in educational leadership at Harvard. He has served as advisor to the Mayor of Hartford and Deputy Major Leader in the CT House of Representatives, and has helped developed strategic partnerships for the Hartford public schools. His work from 2007-12 helped make HPS Connecticut's most improved urban district. One of his proudest achievements is the institution of an annual scholarship in his mother's name in his hometown of Gurabo, Puerto Rico. "Avon's biggest contribution," Kelvin says, "was my love for learning and desire to make change in education. Attending AOF was the equivalent of winning the lottery for me. No child should have to win the lottery to get a great education." Kelvin has become a force for educational change in Hartford — and it all began with a WALKS scholarship.

The World Affairs Council of Connecticut

1049 Asylum Avenue, Hartford, CT 06105 | 860-241-6118
www.ctwac.org

OUR MISSION: The World Affairs Council of Connecticut (CTWAC) engages the Greater Hartford community in global issues and promotes greater understanding of the world. CTWAC is a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization.

Established in 1924, CTWAC is a member of the World Affairs Councils of America, a network of nearly 100 councils that together comprise the largest global affairs nonprofit organization in the U.S.

CTWAC hosts programs and discussions on critical global issues that impact the local community and the world at large. The Council also works with Connecticut schools to provide programs for students and educators that increase awareness of our world and the challenges facing us as global citizens.

What We Do

CTWAC is a connector within the community, linking you to the global resources we have both here in our state and across the world. We do this in a variety of ways, including our public programs.

Global Programs — International political, economic, cultural, business, and financial trends

- Our programs give you unparalleled access to some of the world's most distinguished speakers: Recent speakers hosted at CTWAC have included Henry Kissinger, Ambassador Ryan Crocker, Ted Turner, Red Sox President & CEO Larry Lucchino, General David Petraeus, and former Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi.
- The Council hosts a variety of programs that help the community navigate the global landscape including: Global Discussions Series, Executive Forums, business luncheons, roundtables, Global Trivia and Hot Issue Happy Hours that address the world's most critical issues.
- Luminary Award: Our signature annual event honors individuals and organizations that have had a profound impact on global affairs.

Education Outreach

The World Affairs Council works to promote international education in CT through programs and services that provide a global perspective for students and teachers. Our flagship program is the annual Model United Nations, in which thousands of Connecticut students have participated over the past 60 years. This interactive program calls on students to represent member U.N. countries and lets them experience the inner workings of international policy-making. A highlight is the annual trip to the U.N. CTWAC also provides teacher trips abroad, workshops for students, and global curriculum development.

Why World Affairs?

Understanding global affairs is essential to navigating today's complex world. Global issues are local issues and the world is more connected than ever before. Whether it is unrest impacting gas prices, foreign trade regulations, global health outbreaks, terrorism or cybercrime, what happens around the world affects us all. The World Affairs Council of CT is the only institution in the greater Hartford area dedicated to this mission.

(Right) High school students receive the Global Engagement Award at the 2016 Luminary Award. (Far right) Audience ask questions of H.E. Arun K Singh, Ambassador of India to the U.S.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS/OPPORTUNITIES

- Program Sponsorship: CTWAC holds between 20-30 programs each year, which cover a variety of critical global topics! There are sponsorship opportunities for each program.
- Luminary Award: Each year, the Council holds its annual Luminary Award, which honors an individual or organization that has worked towards the overall betterment of the world. There are many corporate and individual sponsorship opportunities at the Luminary Award.
- Model United Nations: Invest in the next generation of global leaders by supporting the Model United Nations, which this year is on track to host over 1,000 students from over 30 schools across the state.

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Individual Donations: The Council accepts general fund donations from businesses and individuals at any time!

Endowment: A thriving endowment is crucial to achieving the long term mission of the World Affairs Council of CT.
